

COURSE INFORMATIONSubject: CLASSICAL STUDIES*Head of Subject: MR PHIL MASTERS

	Year 12	Year 13
Course Content	This subject is available at Levels 2 and 3 only. The programme is designed to work in sequence, giving a broad understanding of classical Greek and Roman civilisations through Gods, Myths, Battles, epic adventures, Art and Architecture and how leaders use Propaganda. Classical ideas and values are linked to the birth of our modern western civilisation and the key world views of today. Topics covered: Year 12: The Odyssey, The Persian Wars and Athenian Art and Architecture. Year 13: Alexander The Great, Roman Art, Sculpture and Architecture. Classics includes the study of History, Mythology, Religion, Culture/Art, Politics, Geography, Psychology and Literature, in both Greece and Rome. The course provides a varied programme and the opportunity to develop research, analytical and communication skills and a perceptive view of how the world works today.
Prerequisites	Students should have ideally achieved a minimum of 10 Level 1 credits in English or History. Any student not meeting these recommendations may be allowed entry at the discretion of the Head of Department.	Students should have ideally achieved a minimum of 10 Level 2 credits in English or History. Any student not meeting these recommendations may be allowed entry at the discretion of the Head of Department.
Assessment	There are 18 compulsory credits available from four Achievement Standards. Two of these standards, worth ten credits, are internally assessed.	There are up to 22 credits available from four Achievement Standards. Two of these standards, worth twelve credits, are internally assessed.
Costs	N/a	N/a